Iraq: Summary of U.S. Forces

Summary

This report provides a summary estimate of military forces that have reportedly been deployed to and subsequently withdrawn from the U.S. Central Command (USCENTCOM) Area of Responsibility (AOR), popularly called the Persian Gulf region, to support Operation Iraqi Freedom. For background information on the AOR, see [<http://www.centcom.mil/aboutus/aor.htm>]. Geographically, the USCENTCOM AOR stretches from the Horn of Africa to Central Asia. The information about military units that have been deployed and withdrawn is based on both official government public statements and estimates identified in selected news accounts.

The statistics have been assembled from both Department of Defense (DOD) sources and open-source press reports. However, due to concerns about operational security, DOD is not routinely reporting the composition, size, or destination of units and military forces being deployed to the Persian Gulf. Consequently, not all has been officially confirmed. For further reading, see CRS Report RL31701, Iraq: U.S. Military Operations.

This report will be updated as the situation continues to develop.

Operation Iraqi Freedom Force Rotations

Commencing on December 14, 2004, and continuing on January 4 and January 18, 2005, DOD announced the Operation Iraqi Freedom 4 (OIF 4) troop rotational units. At a hearing held by the House Committee on Armed Services on July 7, 2004, DOD officials announced the troops rotation plan for Operation Iraqi Freedom 3 (OIF 3). OIF 3 commenced in July 2004 with the stated goal of flowing new active and reserve forces into the Iraqi theater of operations for up to 12-month rotations, and eventually reducing U.S. force levels in Iraq from 140,000 to approximately 130,000. According to slides presented at the hearing, units from Operation Iraqi Freedom 2 (OIF 2 or units currently stationed in Iraq) will transition out, and units activated for OIF 3 will deploy to Iraq commencing in July 2004 (see Table 3). Also, on May 17, 2004, DOD announced that approximately 3,600 members of the 2nd Brigade of the 2nd Infantry Division will deploy from the Republic of Korea to Iraq in mid-summer 2004.<sup>4</sup>

On January 14, 2004, the USS Boxer<sup>5</sup> (LHD 4) deployed from San Diego, CA, and on January 19, 2004, the USS Bataan<sup>6</sup> (LHD 5) deployed from Norfolk, VA. The mission of both ships was to provide amphibious lift and logistical support for the OIF 2 force rotation. Both ships completed their OIF 2 troop rotation support missions. The USS Boxer on April 29, 2004, returned to its homeport in San Diego, CA; and the USS Bataan on March 31, 2004, returned to its Norfolk, VA, homeport.

Army

Mechanized infantry divisions have 17,000 personnel consisting of three maneuver brigades (a brigade is 5,000 soldiers) that comprise five tank battalions (a battalion is 1,000 soldiers) and five mechanized infantry battalions.<sup>7</sup>

Armored divisions consist of 17,000 personnel and are similar in organization and equipment to a mechanized division, however, the three maneuver brigades have six tank battalions and four mechanized infantry battalions.<sup>8</sup> These numbers are approximate. Army divisions generally deploy with additional support units not included in division counts.

Armored cavalry regiments are comparable in size to a brigade (approximately 4,000 personnel) and are composed of three armored cavalry squadrons (a squadron is 1,000 soldiers) and one air cavalry troop (a troop is 190 soldiers).<sup>9</sup> A corps is a deployable command of approximately 20,000 to 45,000 soldiers.<sup>10</sup>

Navy

The Carrier Strike Group (CSG) does not have an official definition or standard composition. Battle groups are formed and disestablished by the Navy on an as needed basis, and one may be different from another. However, they all are comprised of similar types of ships and aircraft. The U.S. Navy announced on April 9, 2003, that the USS Abraham Lincoln CSG was relieved of duty by the USS Nimitz, and would be returning to homeport. DOD officials said during a Pentagon briefing on April 14, 2003, that the USS Constellation and USS Kitty Hawk CSGs were being withdrawn from the Iraqi theater of operations to return to their homeports. On May 9, 2003, the USS Theodore Roosevelt CSG was ordered to return to homeport, and on May 15, 2003, the Navy reported that the USS Harry S. Truman CSG had withdrawn and would return from deployment.

<sup>10</sup> Department of the Army, Organization of the United States Army, Pamphlet 10-1, June 14, 1994, J4-J10.

On September 5, 2003, DOD officials said the USS Nimitz CSG was departing the Persian Gulf to replace the USS Carl Vinson in the Pacific Ocean. On November 3, 2003, the USS Enterprise CSG deployed from the port of Jebel Ali, United Arab Emirates, for the North Arabian Sea. The USS Enterprise CSG was scheduled to return to its homeport of Norfolk, VA, on February 29, 2004, and was replaced by the USS George Washington CSG on February 16, 2004. The USS George Washington CSG returned to its Norfolk, VA homeport on July 26, 2004, and was replaced by the USS John F. Kennedy CSG. The USS John F. Kennedy CSG was relieved of duty station by the USS Harry S. Truman CSG on November 20, 2004.

Support Ship. The USNS Comfort hospital ship is a 1,000-bed medical treatment facility capable of providing emergency on-site care for U.S. combatant forces deployed in war and peacetime operations. The ship is also equipped to deliver medical care for troops injured in biological and chemical attacks. On May 9, 2003, the Comfort was ordered to return to its homeport in Baltimore, MD.

USS Harry S. Truman Carrier Strike Group. Carrier Air Wing 3 consists of 70-80 aircraft including the F-14A Tomcat, F/A-18 C/D Hornet, E-2CHawkeye, EA-6B Prowler, S-3B Viking, C-2A Greyhound, SH-60F Seahawk, and HH60 Seahawk.

Marine Corps

A complete Marine Expeditionary Force (MEF) consists of approximately 45,000 personnel. A Marine Expeditionary Brigade (MEB) has 15,000 troops, and the Marine Expeditionary Unit (MEU) is composed of nearly 2,000 marines.<sup>11</sup>

Table 7. Marine Corps Personnel Deployed or Alerted

| Military Unit   | Number of Personnel | Home Military Base |
|---|---------------------|--------------------|
| II Marine Expeditionary Force (selected elements)                       | 25,000              | Camp Lejeune, NC   |
| 11 th Marine Expeditionary Unit (selected units)             | 2,200               | Camp Pendleton, CA |

| 24 th Marine Expeditionary Unit (Special Operations Capable) | 2,200               | Camp Lejeune, NC   |

Operationally, these Marine Corps units are organized into Amphibious Task Forces that consist of three Amphibious Ready Groups (ARGs) or battle groups. Each ARG is led by an amphibious assault helicopter carrier with approximately 2,000 marines on board.<sup>12</sup> On June 13, 2003, the Marine Corps reported that the 2nd Marine Expeditionary Brigade had withdrawn from Iraq and would return to Camp Lejeune on June 22, 2003. The 15th MEU on April 29, 2003, and the 26th MEU on July 10, 2003, were both withdrawn from Iraq and redeployed.

Amphibious Task Force East. Six to eight aircraft and 33 helicopters, including AV-8 Harrier, CH-53 Sea Stallions, CH-46 Sea Knights, AH-1 Sea Cobras, Mechanized Landing (LCM), Landing Craft Utility (LCU), and Landing Craft, Air Cushion (LCAC) landing craft. On June 6, 2003, the Navy reported that the sailors, marines, and ships attached to Amphibious Task Force East would return to Norfolk, VA, on June 25-26, 2003.

Amphibious Task Force West. Six to eight aircraft and 33 helicopters, including AV-8 Harrier, CH-53 Sea Stallions, CH-46 Sea Knights, AH-1 Sea Cobras, Mechanized Landing (LCM), Landing Craft Utility (LCU), and Landing Craft, Air Cushion (LCAC) landing craft. On July 30, 2003, the Navy reported that the sailors, marines, and ships attached to Amphibious Task Force West returned to San Diego on July 26, 2003.

On July 25, 2003, the Navy ordered the Iwo Jima Amphibious Ready Group to redeploy from Iraq. On July 25, 2003, President George W. Bush ordered the USS Iwo Jima to take a position for possible action off the coast of Liberia.

Expeditionary Strike Groups (ESG). Expeditionary Strike Group One, led by the USS Peleliu Amphibious Assault Ship, is the first ESG to deploy overseas. The ESG arrived in the USCENTCOM area of responsibility in September 2003 with the assigned mission of “providing a post-war presence in the region, aid in peacekeeping, security, and to promote an environment conducive to rebuilding a new Iraqi government.”<sup>13</sup> ESG One was scheduled to return to the United States during the first week of March 2004. Expeditionary Strike Group Two is led by the USS Wasp Amphibious Assault Ship — the first ESG to deploy from the East Coast. ESG Two departed from Norfolk, VA, on February 17, 2004, to replace ESG One.<sup>14</sup>

Expeditionary Strike Group Three (ESG 3), also known as the Belleau Wood ESG 3, entered the U.S. Navy’s 5th Fleet on July 2, 2004, and will assume the duties of maritime security operations in the Northern Arabian Gulf (NAG). The NAG security operations include security of the Al Basrah and Khawr Al Amaya Iraqi oil terminals.<sup>15</sup> Expeditionary Strike Group Two was redeployed to its homeport on August 21, 2004.
