Summary

In total, 332 women have been elected or appointed to Congress, 215 Democrats and 117 Republicans. These figures include six nonvoting Delegates, one each from Guam, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and American Samoa, and two from the U.S. Virgin Islands, as well as one Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico. Of these 332 women there have been

- 280 (181 Democrats, 99 Republicans) women elected only to the House of Representatives;
- 40 (25 Democrats, 15 Republicans) women elected or appointed only to the Senate;
- 12 (9 Democrats, 3 Republicans) women who have served in both houses.

A record 115 women currently serve in the 115th Congress. Of the 115 women there are

- 23 in the Senate (17 Democrats and 6 Republicans);
- 92 in the House (67 Democrats and 25 Republicans);
- 5 women in the House (3 Democrats and 2 Republicans) who serve as Delegates or Resident Commissioner, representing the District of Columbia, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

This report includes committee assignments, dates of service, district information, and listings by Congress and state, and (for Representatives) congressional districts of the 332 women who have been elected or appointed to Congress. It will be updated when there are relevant changes in the makeup of Congress.

For additional information, including a discussion of the impact of women in Congress as well as historical information, including the number and percentage of women in Congress over time, data on entry to Congress, comparisons to international and state legislatures, tenure, firsts for women in Congress, women in leadership, and African American, Asian Pacific American, and Hispanic women in Congress, see CRS Report R43244, Women in Congress: Statistics and Brief Overview, by (name redacted) and (name redacted) .

Introduction

On November 9, 1916, Jeannette Rankin (R-MT) was elected to the House of Representatives as Montana's Representative-at-Large to the 65th Congress (1917-1919). This election win gave Representative Rankin the distinction of being the first woman elected to serve in Congress.<sup>1</sup> The first woman to serve in the Senate was Rebecca Latimer Felton (D-GA). She was appointed in 1922 and served for one day.

Including new Members sworn into office in November 2018,<sup>2</sup> 332 women have been elected or appointed to Congress.<sup>3</sup> These figures include six nonvoting Delegates, one each from Guam, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and American Samoa, and two from the U.S. Virgin Islands, as well as one Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico. Of these 332 women there have been<sup>4</sup>

- 215 Democrats and 117 Republicans;
- 280 (181 Democrats, 99 Republicans) women elected only in the House of Representatives, including 7 (4 Democrats, 3 Republicans) women who have served as Delegates or Resident Commissioners in the House;<sup>5</sup>
- 40 (25 Democrats, 15 Republicans) women elected or appointed only in the Senate; and
- 12 (9 Democrats, 3 Republicans) women elected or appointed in both houses.

A record 115 women currently serve in the 115th Congress. This is higher than the previous record from the 114th Congress (108 women initially sworn in, and one House Member subsequently elected). Of the 115 women in the 115th Congress there are

- 23 in the Senate (17 Democrats and 6 Republicans);
- 92 in the House (67 Democrats and 25 Republicans);
- 5 of the women in the House who serve as Delegates or Resident Commissioner (3 Democrats and 2 Republicans), representing the District of Columbia, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico;
- 22 African American women, 11 Asian Pacific American women, and 11 Hispanic women; and
- 2 women that chair House committees, 1 woman that chairs a Senate standing committee, and 1 woman that chairs a Senate select committee.

<sup>1</sup> Rep. Rankin served from 1917 to 1919 and from 1941 to 1943. Rep. Rankin was also the only Member of Congress to vote against America's entry into both World Wars.

<sup>3</sup> Throughout this report, House and Senate totals each include one woman elected but not sworn in or seated due to the House or Senate being out of session. Both women are included in various official congressional publications, including, for example, the Biographical Directory of the United States Congress (<http://bioguide.congress.gov>), "Women in Congress" (<http://history.house.gov/Exhibition-and-Publications/WIC/Women-in-Congress>) and "Senators of the United States 1789-present: a chronological list of senators since the First Congress in 1789," maintained by the Senate Historical Office (<http://www.senate.gov/artandhistory/history/resources/pdf/chronlist.pdf>).

<sup>4</sup> For additional information on the women who have served in Congress, please refer to "Women in Congress," <http://history.house.gov/Exhibition-and-Publications/WIC/Women-in-Congress/>. This website is maintained by the U.S. House of Representatives' Office of the Historian and Office of Art and Archives and is frequently updated.

<sup>5</sup> The total number of female Members of the House includes one Delegate to the House of Representatives from Hawaii prior to statehood, one from the District of Columbia, one from Guam, two from the U.S. Virgin Islands, one from American Samoa, and one Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico.

Other notable facts about women in the 115th Congress include the following:

- Not including Delegates and the Resident Commissioner, women currently hold 87 (20.0%) seats in the House of Representatives and 23 (23%) seats in the Senate, totaling 110 (20.6%) of the 535 voting seats in the 115th Congress.
- Including Delegates and the Resident Commissioner, women currently hold 92 seats in the House of Representatives, increasing the total to 115 seats (21.3%) in the entire Congress.

This report includes brief biographical information, committee assignments, dates of service, listings by Congress and state, and (for Representatives) congressional districts of the 328 women who have been elected or appointed to Congress. It will be updated when there are relevant changes in the makeup of Congress.

For additional information, including a discussion of the impact of women in Congress as well as historical information, including the number and percentage of women in Congress over time, data on entry to Congress, comparisons to international and state legislatures, tenure, firsts for women in Congress, women in leadership, and African American, Asian Pacific American, and Hispanic women in Congress, see CRS Report R43244, Women in Congress: Statistics and Brief Overview, by (name redacted) and (name redacted) .

Tables and Data

The lists and tables that follow provide information on women Members of Congress, including the dates they were first elected or appointed, the Congresses in which they served, the committees on which they served, and, where relevant, the committees they chaired or served on as ranking Member.

Table 1 lists all the women who have served in each Congress, by Congress. Table 2 lists the women Members of Congress, by state. Table 3 provides the total number of women in each Congress.

Most of the data presented are from

- the Biographical Directory of the United States Congress, 1774-present, available at <http://bioguide.congress.gov>;
- various editions of the Congressional Directory;
- a broad range of Congressional Quarterly and Leadership Directories Inc. publications; and
- the Women in Congress website, at <http://womenincongress.house.gov>, maintained by the House of Representatives' Office of the Historian and the Office of Art and Archives, Office of the Clerk.

The 115th Congress committee assignments sources are the

- House, Official Alphabetical List of the Members with Committee Assignments in the 115th Congress, available from the Clerk of the House's website at http://clerk.house.gov/committee\_info/oal.aspx; and
- Senate, Committee Assignments of the 115<sup>h</sup> Congress, available at the Senate website at http://www.senate.gov/general/committee\_assignments/assignments.htm.

The names and jurisdiction of House and Senate committees have changed many times over the years. In the interest of brevity, this report does not identify all historical name changes. The committee names listed are for the most part those in effect at the time a Member served on the panel.

Source: Biographical Directory of the United States Congress, 1774-Present, <http://bioguide.congress.gov>.

Notes: Names of Democratic Representatives and Senators in Italics; Republicans in Roman.

Prior to the adoption of the Twentieth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, effective Oct. 15, 1933, the terms of Representatives and Senators began on March 4, in conformance with a resolution of the Continental Congress implementing the Constitution (adopted Sept. 13, 1788). The Twentieth Amendment provides inter alia that the terms of Representatives and Senators shall commence at noon on Jan. 3, in the year following their election. The first Congress affected by the Twentieth Amendment was the 74th (1935-1937). Since 1934, the first session of a Congress convenes on Jan. 3 of odd-numbered years and adjourns on Jan. 3 the following odd-numbered year. For ease of use, this table lists the closing date of each Congress as an even-numbered year. For more information, see <http://www.senate.gov/reference/Sessions/sessionDates.htm>.

- a. Member did not serve the entire Congress. See biographical information in the Alphabetical Listing section for additional information.
- b. Moved from House to the Senate during this Congress. See biographical information in the Alphabetical Listing section for additional information.
- c. Gladys Spellman was elected also to the 97th Congress, but was unable to be sworn in because of a disability and her seat was declared vacant on Feb. 24, 1981.
- d. Eva Bowring was appointed to serve until a successor was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dwight Griswold. Hazel Abel was elected to fill that vacancy.
- e. Was elected but not sworn in since chamber was out of session. See biographical information in the Alphabetical Listing section for additional information.
- f. Appointed to fill a vacancy at the end of the 67th Congress, and served for one day.

Source: CRS summary, based on <http://history.house.gov/Exhibition-and-Publications/WIC/Women-in-Congress/>.

Notes: The column headings include the following abbreviations: Representatives (Reps), Delegates (Del), and Resident Commissioners (RC).

Three columns include numbers for the House: (1) the number of women Representatives, (2) the number of women nonvoting Members (including Delegates and Resident Commissioners), and (3) the total number of women in the House.

Totals are also provided for (1) the number of women in the House and Senate not including nonvoting Members and (2) the number of women in the House and Senate including nonvoting Members.

For simplification, Congresses are listed in two-year increments. Pursuant to the 20th Amendment to the Constitution, which was ratified Jan. 23, 1933, “the terms of Senators and Representatives [shall end] at noon on the 3rd day of Jan.” For specific dates, see “Dates of Sessions of the Congress, present-1789,” at <http://www.senate.gov/reference/Sessions/sessionDates.htm>.
